

Zoë

Hello, I am the youngest donkey of the herd. I am the daughter of Cleo, the best mother in the world. I was born on April 3, 2019, and Cleo took very good care of me, along with Arno. He is not a donkey, he is the donkey man.

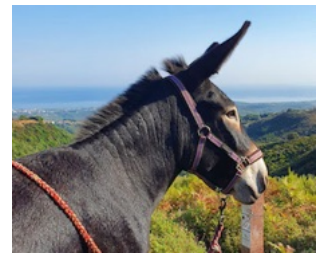

I resemble my mother a lot. I'm just built a little differently because my father was a small donkey. I love playing, running, cuddling, and eating. Just like my mother, I can run very fast, and I can also jump high. When I run and play, watch out for my hind legs as they can suddenly spring up.

Arno calls me the "watchful donkey" because I always pay close attention, and I can hear and see (almost) everything that happens in our surroundings. I hear the sheep coming, I see people walking in the distance, and I can stand very patiently to listen and watch.

I try to be obedient, but sometimes I fail because I get easily distracted. I am still young, and I have a lot to learn. I love walking, and I enjoy leading the way.

Sometimes we walk on paths I have never been before, but I always think I know where we're going, so I just keep on walking.

If I don't trust something, I quickly hide behind the adult donkeys and observe what's happening. I love companionship, and I would be happy if you come for a walk with me.

Oh, by the way, I'll eat anything!!!
