

On the way to 2019

Still a couple of days and then 2018 will be over! We, Arno and I (Barbara) would like to look back on the last year in which a lot has happened and in which we have experienced a lot in Kournas.

We enjoyed the many beautiful sunny days, but also the days with rain were sometimes very welcome. We have defied the many south winds and northern storms, and the high waves in the sea were intense as well as fun.

On some days it was crowded in Kournas, but there were also very quiet days when the tourists only drove through the village.

This year many tourists have discovered the village of Kournas for the first time and many of them were positively surprised by the tranquillity and traditional village life of Crete that you still find here.

Also in our store we saw many new faces, had interesting conversations and made many people happy with useful information, a nice relaxed walk, tasty local products and special gifts.

Our donkeys Cleo and Eos were also a reason for many people to come to Kournas. Or for a walk or just to cuddle or take a picture.

The small dog Bartje alias Danny the Vito has found a nice place to stay at the square in Kournas

In short, it was a year with a lot of variety, many new things and special experiences. We have made beautiful memories in 2018.
